

TV set place card detailing the first 1956 WOSU-TV broadcast receiving equipment available back then in Columbus.

An original 1955 RCA Victor TV set along with the required UHF Converter box.

WOSU Public Media Chief Engineer Mike Meadows, conducting the equipment tour.

A unique "Penthouse" type outdoor combination TV studio/employee break area, fully equipped for a video production.

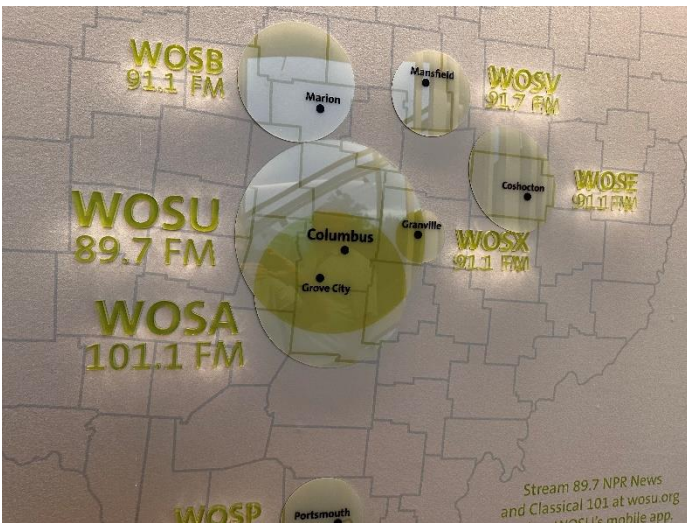

One of the new state of the art Radio production studios.

One of the new modern newsroom employees office areas.

Various meeting attendees touring one of the top of the line TV Studios.

The WOSU main and various repeater, FM radio station coverage areas map.

The WOSU main and repeater, TV station coverage areas map.

One of the new spacious high end state of the art WOSU Studio control rooms.